

Participle or gerundive?

Complete the following table by translating each sentence into English. Then identify each underlined word as a present active participle, a perfect passive participle, a perfect active participle, a future active participle, or a gerundive. One is done for you.

	Translation	Identification
1 rēs adversae nōbīs aequō animō ferendae sunt.	We must endure adversity with a calm mind.	gerundive
2 toga scissa mihi ūtilis nōn est.
3 nōnne vīnum Falernum ēlātūrus es?
4 omnēs amīcī ad cēnam splendidam mihi invītandī sunt.
5 mīlitēs, fugitīvōs trēs diēs secūtī , tandem eōs cēpērunt.
6 pauper, multīs cāsibus oppressus sed optima facere cōnātus , tranquillō animō periit.
7 clientibus Haterius laudandus est.
8 convīvae philosopham doctam vīsūrī audītūrīque sunt.
9 philosopha convīvīs videnda audiendaque erat.
10 convīvae Haterium currentem atque ōrantem nōn cōspexērunt.		